

Mount Moriah “Faith” Church of Christ in Jacksonville

Built in early 1900's, during the past two decades it has been hit twice by cars. The first time it was actually knocked off its foundation. The City was ready to condemn the building, but thru the efforts of the congregation it was saved. (1)

Sources

1) News articles at Jacksonville.com

